The Zero to Four Family Support Service is a home-visiting volunteer service for families with babies and young children up to the age of 4 years. The volunteers help families build on their existing strengths, offering encouragement with parenting and a friendly listening ear, and another set of hands.

This help supports parents and little ones with the challenges of day-to-day life and builds positive relationships. The Family Support volunteers can also assist families to attend playgroups and other community activities helping them feel connected to their community.

Volunteers can draw from their experience as a parent, grandparent, or their experience in the early childhood sector. Make a unique contribution to the lives of the families and children you visit, and to the community.
