FREE DRESS FAIR FRIDAY THIS WEEK - 19 SEP

To celebrate the last day of term, students can wear free dress and in return, please bring in items we need for the Fair - 2nd hand books, puzzles, games or plushies/soft toys, or a pack of juice poppers, or a gold coin donation - or all of the above! Collection point at Haig Rd on Friday from 8.30am

Please note - you can also drop off any donations to MOSHC (before/after school during term or during opening hours over the school hols), to admin during school hours, or to the uniform shop (Tue & Fri mornings only).

For books, puzzles, games & plushies - you can also drop to the garage of 26 Dudley St, Bardon. Please ensure any games or puzzles have all their pieces :)

FANCY YOUR NAME ON A BURGER?

Get your name on the menu at Cliff's BBQ - imagine The Davidson's Rib Fillet Burger, The Bennett Cheeseburger or The Martin's gourmet beef burger

Only $250, 2 opportunities remaining - don't let this pass you by! Email at faironthegreen@gmail.com to lock it in

VOLUNTEERS PLEASE!

It takes a village to put the Fair on for our kids & community - whether you can flip a burger, put up a marquee, walk the streets or sell a ride ticket, we've got a job for you.

DUCK, DUCK... HELP!

We're also seeking a convenor for a hook-a-duck stall, a new addition to the Fair this year. If you're keen to have some ducking fun and give back, please reach out to Leah at faironthegreen@gmail.com

HANDY WITH TOOLS?

We're looking for help onground - someone who is proficient with tools, in the lead up to the Fair (Wed-Fri) and on the morning of the set up. Please reach out to Leah at faironthegreen@gmail.com

APRONS AT THE READY

We'd love for you to make an assortment of treats, ranging from cakes & slices to cupcakes & savoury snacks, to jams & chutney - all for our bake stall

Please collect cake boxes & snack/cookie/fudge cellophane bags from the office anytime, or the uniform shop (Tue & Fri mornings only)

NO NUTS PLEASE
